

ANTONY GORMLEY

TUSCIA ELECTA, SAN CASCIANO, ITALY, 2002

12 April - 06 July 2002

TUSCIA ELECTA was a biennial art show which tried to redefine landscape and urban texture by inserting contemporary works in the Chianti area between the cities of Florence and Siena. Antony Gormley installed a new work called EDGE II (2000) in a water tower in San Casciano.
