

ANTONY GORMLEY

ANOTHER PLACE, STAVANGER, NORWAY, 1998

07 June - 07 September 1998

The second presentation of ANOTHER PLACE (1997), following its installation at Cuxhaven, Germany, in 1997. The 100 sculptures were installed at Sola Beach, where the works occupied part of the airport, which with its fence, becomes an analogue for all boundaries between people and elements, and more importantly, an example of the controlling devices of commerce.
