

ANTONY GORMLEY

MODEL, GALERIE RUDOLFINUM, PRAGUE, CZECH REPUBLIC, 2015

29 January - 03 May 2015

The exhibition included works by Thomas Demand, Lorenz Estermann, Antony Gormley, Mariele Neudecker, Julian Opie, Jaroslav Róna, Tom Sachs, Pavla Sceranková, Thomas Schütte, Rachel Whiteread and Edwin Zwakman, who in their practice explore the phenomenon of models and modelling - either constructing 3D models, or using models to create paintings, photographs and videos. The exhibition presented the diverse roles and uses models in artistic practice can assume: a memory tool, a cognitive instrument, a self-sustained artistic object, an instrument of social argumentation and discourse, or just a toy.
