

ANTONY GORMLEY

RODIN, L'EXPOSITION DU CENTENAIRE, GRAND PALAIS, PARIS, FRANCE, 2017

20 March - 31 July 2017

RODIN, L'EXPOSITION DU CENTENAIRE will be curated by Catherine Chevillot, Director of the Rodin Museum and Antoinette le Normand-Roamin, General Director of the National Institute of Art History. On the occasion of the first centenary of the artist's death, the exhibition will retrace Rodin's oeuvre but also explore the multiple repercussions he has had on generations of artists from the end of the 19th century until today. The show will include many modern and contemporary artists such as Baselitz, Beckmann, Beuys, Bourdelle, Brancusi, César, Couturier, De Kooning, Dodeigne, Fautrier, Flanagan, Fontana, Giacometti, Gonzalez, Gormley, Gutfreund, Houseago, Jianguo, Kirkeby, Kolbe, Lehmbruck, Lüpertz, Maillol, Maratka, Marcheschi, Matisse, Mestrovic, Moore, Penck, Picasso, Richier, Rosso, Saint-Marceau, Tucker, Vermeiren, Vigeland and Zadkine.
