

ANTONY GORMLEY

INTUITION, PALAZZO FORTUNY, VENICE, ITALY, 2017

Opening ON 11 May, INTUITION is the 6th in a series of exhibitions at the Palazzo Fortuny curated by Axel Vervoordt and Daniela Ferretti. The exhibition aims to provoke questions about the origins of creation, and is intended to be viewed as a 'work in progress', with leading contemporary artists creating a dialogue with the historic works and unique character of the Fortuny's former home.

This is the third time Antony Gormley has participated in this exhibition and he will be showing a plaster work from 2013, entitled GUT X.
