

ANTONY GORMLEY

COUNTER ACTS, LETHABY GALLERY, CENTRAL SAINT MARTINS, ENGLAND, 2019 - 2020

29 November 2019 - 22 January 2020

An exhibition that explores the relationship between generations of the artists who studied and taught at UAL and their connections to the Turner Prize. Held at the Lethaby Gallery, Central Saint Martins, the exhibition brings together artists who form part of the UAL's artistic communities (alumni, teachers and recent graduates) to mark the 35th anniversary of the Turner Prize. A drawing by Antony Gormley is included alongside work by Jeremy Deller, Bill Woodrow, Mona Hatoum, Yinka Shonibare and Gillian Wearing among others.
